Cold Cereal Collection for Franklin Avenue Mission

We are partnering with our Little Saints Preschool collecting boxes of cold cereal from January 18th-February 8th. Cold cereal is in demand because it is shelf stable and portable, working good especially for those without a home. If you would like to participate there is a table in the gathering space near the coat rack.

Fiction Book Group

Our group meets at church the second Tuesday of each month, at 3 PM. All are welcome to join and if you have any questions please contact Milissa Schmantowsky, 248-420-8756. February 10, we will discuss "First Lie Wins" by Ashley Elston. We would love to have you join us!

Valentines for Shut Ins

Supplies will be available in the Gathering Space on February 1st to make valentines for our shut-ins. Please stop before or after worship to make a few and we'll mail them out. What a wonderful way to let them know that their All Saints family is thinking of them.

Call Committee Update

Congregational Surveys are available on the counter in the narthex next to the collection box. We will be collecting them thru February 8th. Our next meeting is February 20th.

"A Joyful Shout Out"

This week we have a man who several people nominated for a big thank you. Without him we wouldn't be able to stream our services for those who cannot attend in person, in fact we wouldn't be able to hear service in person very well either. Recently he identified that our computer system needed to be upgraded then quietly went about updating then training staff. He isn't someone who likes the spotlight but he spends a significant amount of time using his talents to make things better here at All Saints and we wanted to give him a big thank you!

Love and Joy within you

Love isn't a state of perfect caring, it is an active noun like struggle. Loving others is sometimes so simple and easy, other times it is challenging and difficult. Loving ourselves, well that is a whole other ball of wax now isn't it? This week I encourage you to consider how you love yourself and be aware that it might feel uncomfortable at first because we are much more comfortable loving others than ourselves. But much like the air masks that are in an airplane for emergencies, we need to care for ourselves in order to care for others. In Jeremiah 1:15 it says ", Before I formed you in the womb I knew you". You are treasured by our God who does not make mistakes but how do you treat yourself? Do you speak to yourself with love or with criticism? Do you celebrate when things go well or are you more likely to only notice when you make mistakes? I loved hearing Bishop Kreiss refer to us as "dear ones" the last time he visited All Saints. It made me feel collectively cherished and special. I looked around at those in our congregation and thought that yes, they are all so dear. But then I wondered why I need the feeling of being special to be collective, why I could not feel it singularly. This week I encourage you to be mindful of how you think and talk about yourself. Instead of berating yourself for mistakes past and present, consider how you would speak to a dear one who is struggling with those same feelings. Work on discovering the joy you have within you that is wholly yours, to delight in it and to speak to yourself with kindness and grace. Pretend you are speaking to someone you cherish, then realize that you are.

Because of God's Great Mercy

"Because of God's Great Mercy" is the title of our stewardship emphasis this year. The scriptural basis of this focus on our stewardship of all that God has entrusted into our care is I Peter 2:9, "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness and into his marvelous light."

We begin by proclaiming all that God has done for us, hence the title "Because of God's Great Mercy." God has made us God's own people. We will also consider how generous giving is an important part of every Christian's life, and how our combined generosity can make even greater things possible through our congregation.

We will think together about how our giving to All Saints is an important part of our Christian faith, and how All Saints uses our offerings to do God's work within the congregation's walls, in our community, and around the world.

"Because of God's Great Mercy" will ask you to do two things. First, you will be asked to increase your giving to All Saints by at least ½ of 1% of your household income. Second, you will be asked to consider using either an automatic bill payment through your bank or an automatic funds transfer program that All Saints already has in place for your giving.

"Because of God's Great Mercy" will use mail, e-mail, and time in worship to share information with you. Please make a special effort to watch for material during this important time in our congregation's life.

Need Volunteers for Coffee Crew

Our coffee crew is a very important job and we could use some help. We're looking for folks to come in by 9:00 AM to start the coffee and hot water. Directions for coffee making are available. There is also a need for volunteers to bring a snack to go with the coffee. Lastly, we need help after worship to be the coffee cleanup crew. There is a signup sheet on the table in the Gathering Space.

Stay Connected with our All Saints
Facebook Members Group

Church isn't just something we do on Sunday mornings—it's a community we walk through life with every day. One of the ways we're staying connected throughout the week is through our All Saints Members Facebook Group, and we'd love for you to be part of it.

This private, members-only group is a safe and welcoming space just for All Saints congregation members. It's a place where we can:

Share joys and accomplishments

Lift one another up through prayer requests

Ask questions, offer encouragement, and have meaningful conversations

Stay connected with what's happening in the life of our church family

If you're already part of the group—wonderful! If not, and you'd like to be included, we invite you to join us.

There will be a sign-up sheet available, where you can write your Facebook name. Once we have that, an invitation to the group will be sent your way. Participation is completely optional, but it's a simple way to stay connected, informed, and supported.

We're grateful for the many ways our congregation shows up for one another, and this is just one more way to share life together—faith, fellowship, and all.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out. We're happy to help.
